Guidelines on how to use the Study Guide

Short Stories

- There is one chapter for each of the short stories.
- Each chapter includes a summary, a brief statement of the importance of the title, and the themes.
- More detail is given on how the story is told by examining setting, structure and plot development, characterisation, style, diction and figurative language; and tone and mood.

Poetry

- There is one chapter for each poem. Each chapter includes a copy of the poem and information about the ff:
  - The background of the poem and poet; the themes, words you need to know to understand the poem, type and form, a detailed analysis and tone, mood and intention.
- All the above information is contained in a summary which will help you understand the poem.
- Complete the activities set on each poem to test your understanding of the poem.

DRAFT

Conclusion

- The Study Guide does not replace the text. Read the short stories and do your own analysis before consulting the study guide.
- Use the Study Guide only after doing your own detailed analysis of the poems.
- The Study Guide will be available on the DBE website.
